

CALL FOR PERCUSSION PAPERS.

II European Meeting of Contemporary Percussion

Xàbia - Alicante - Spain. From 9 to 15 July 2018

Open the Call for national and international composers whose pieces are written for percussion chamber ensembles.

The pieces will be presented at the II European Meeting of Contemporary Percussion, and will be performed at the closing concert of the Àgora Actual Percussió Festival by the festival's resident group.

The selected composers will be invited to participate in the round tables that will be presented before each of the concerts.

They will be offered travel assistance (studying each particular request) and full board for work and concert sessions.

Bases of participation

-Profile candidates: this call is open to all Spanish composers residing or not in Spain and foreign composers, without age limit.

-Template: from two percussionists, without limit of training, or duration of the piece, with freedom to use any conventional percussion instrument or not, with use if desired electroacoustic media or other means.

-Brand of delivery of sheet music: the works will be sent to the mail agoraactualpercussio@gmail.com from November 27 and until February 27. Each composer may send one or more works.

-Selection: The works will be selected by a reading committee constituted by the artistic director and the academic director of the II European Meeting of Contemporary Percussion with the collaboration of experts of recognized prestige in the field of the current creation.

-Communication of results: The results of the selection will be announced on the website of Àgora Actual Percussion - European Meeting of Contemporary Percussion www.agoraactualpercussio.com on March 5, 2018, and personally to all participants.
