

CALL FOR PERCUSSION PROJECTS.

II European Meeting of Contemporary Percussion.

Xàbia, Alicante, Spain. From 9 to July 15, 2018.

Open the Call for national and international professionals, with no age limit who want to present their projects around the current percussion art.

Presentation of new pieces, record works, research studies, new projects, ...

Each participant will present their project within the II European Meeting of Contemporary Percussion, and will have a 1 hour session to do it.

The organization will arrange the necessary technical and instrumental means to carry out the presentation of the selected candidates, as well as the corresponding accreditation of its realization and the dissemination of the project.

Bases of participation

-Profile candidates: this call is open to all national and international artists, with no age limit whose project falls within the scope of current percussion.

- Project submission deadline: the project description will be sent to the email agoraactualpercussio@gmail.com from January 29, 2018 and until March 23. Each artist can send more than one project.

-Selection: The projects will be selected by a committee formed by professors of the European Meeting of Contemporary percussion, the artistic director and the academic director of the project.

-Communication of results: The results of the selection will be announced on the website of Àgora Actual Percussion - European Meeting of Contemporary Percussion www.agoraactualpercussio.com on March 28, 2018, and personally to all participants.
